

What's New

Macao Economic Bureau launches the “Economic and Trade Laws and Regulations Database” under “Hong Kong-Macao CEPA”

In accordance with the Economic and Technical Cooperation Work Programme under the umbrella of “Hong Kong-Macao CEPA”, both sides decide to strengthen cooperation in the area of enhanced transparency of laws and regulations, as well as exchange information on the enactment and implementation of laws and regulations in respect of investment, trade and other economic areas.

In this connection, the Macao Economic Bureau will add a new category of “Database on Hong Kong’s Trade Laws and Regulations” and “Database on Macao’s Trade Laws and Regulations” on 3 December under “Hong Kong-Macao CEPA”. The database contains the major business laws and regulations of Hong Kong and Macao as well as the service sectors liberalized under the Arrangement, which serves to provide a more convenient means for entrepreneurs of both sides in searching for information related to laws and regulations.